There's a light in your eyes tonight

You know I'd know that look anywhere

You've made plans and I'm one lucky man I would not

Before we share our hearts and soul there's just something I want you to know when we make love it's more than just our little time we share our hearts, our souls and our minds when we make love.

Watching you make your little moves

I can tell it's going to be a long night.

All day long I sat by the phone waiting for the call I know will come

From John Ford

My Baby, I found Heaven

When I found you

And this Heaven

Is something I don't want to lose

I only know that

If you ever said good-bye

I couldn't stand the pain

This eyes would cry like the rain

And the sun would have nowhere to shine

And the stars would fall from the skies

Honey please don't take away my Heaven

Cause the world would stop turning I know

And I'd lose my whole world if you go

Honey please don't take away my Heaven
